The International Sponsored Students Agreement Form is to be used for every international student whose studies at UNSW will be fully/partially funded by a government or other organisation. It is not intended for local students or for those students who have not yet secured sponsorship funding. This form does not apply to Australia Awards sponsored students.

This form needs to be read and completed by the student.

Please note: You will be considered a non-sponsored student, pending final approval from the International Office. Furthermore, UNSW cannot issue an Electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE), which enables a student to apply for a student visa, unless this Form is completed.
