Scholarship Application

Never Stand Still

UNSW Study Abroad offers a number of scholarship opportunities to students participating in the Study Abroad program. This application form can be used for the Financial Need Scholarship and the Surf Camp Scholarship – please indicate in the form below which scholarship(s) you are applying for.

Submitting your application

Complete this form in its entirety and submit it by email to studyabroad@unsw.edu.au. The application should be submitted concurrently with an application for admission to the UNSW Study Abroad Program via the Endeavour platform.

Attachments

The following components must be submitted along with the application form:

- A typed statement in support of your application explaining why you have a strong interest in studying abroad in Australia and how this experience of studying abroad would not be possible without financial assistance.
- Two references to support your application. One of your referees must be the advisor from your International Programs Office or the equivalent officer at your home university, or your financial aid officer. A third, optional, reference may be submitted concerning other academic or personal matters.

Selection Criteria

Selection for the UNSW Study Abroad scholarships is a competitive process. Financial need is the primary selection criteria; however demonstrated academic merit is vital for selection.

Any questions?

If you have any questions about this form or about the scholarships application process, email UNSW Study Abroad at studyabroad@unsw.edu.au.
